Descendants of Hendrick De Mel
(De Mel Family)

HENRICANS is the name given to the family organization whose members consist of the generation coming down from the “seed” of the Late Hendrick De Mel of Koralawella Moratuwa who lived in Francisco Place circa 1870-1930.

Since the 1st generation descendants are no more, what is written in this article is from what I have heard from my late father & other close relatives from the time I was quite young.

Hendrick De Mel was often referred to as “Rathu Hendrick De Mel” most probably as there were many others with the same name as Hendrick, which was a fairly common name among Anglican Christians of that era but more so due to his fair complexion.

He wore a traditional dress in vogue at that time, a tweed coat and tweed “redde” tied with a leather belt so that it will not come down and a neat comb on his hair.

He was said to be an “Eating Drinking Man” often downing a couple of shots of good arrack every evening.

My father the Late Ville De Mel (Vincent Henry being his real name) his son, who worked for a better part of his life in Talawakelle working for his “De Mel” relatives told me this story which was corroborated by Hendrick’s daughter my late aunt Catherine.

Hendrick De Mel after a few shots & some argument probably with his dear wife had walked to the Koralawella Beach in somewhat of frenzy and in a sudden anger thrown his cat’s eye gold ring to the sea. By some miracle or stroke of luck a wave had within a few minutes washed it a shore. My father treasured this ring and wanted it to go down generations and handed it to me his first & only born son but alas some domestics at home had stolen it and I was deprived of a valued family heirloom.

The “De Mels” of Moratuwa especially Koralawella were indeed proud of their “Ge” name which was “Vidanlage”. My father however claimed that the original name was “Laxadipathi Maha Vidanalage De Mel Appuhamy” which was subsequently shortened to simply “Vidanlage”. I have no corroborative evidence of the former claim. My two sons nevertheless have been both christened with “Vidanlage” preceding their respective names.

My father also had shown me where Hendrick De Mel had originally lived.

The De Mels also took pride in naming their houses with a “Mel” prefix. A tour round Koralawella some years back would have still observed names such as “Melville”, “Melgreen”, “Melgrove”, “Melbourne”, “Melita”, “Melrum”, “Melsiri”, “Melinda” etc. Grandfather Hendrick was no exception. His old home had been named “Melsruhe” which was situated on the riverside opposite Francisco Place. This house was there till the 1980’s. What was remaining was the well preserved wood monogram on the trellises marked “VHDM” clearly. My father took pride in showing this to me.
Back to Hendrick De Mel

He had married twice the first being Selestina De Mel who bore him a Son & Daughter. The Son being Sam De Mel who lived a better part of his life in Kurunegalle and daughter Nana who lived through out at “Orchid Villa” Koralawella. The generation down this line is dealt in detail in the De Mel family tree.

After the demise of his first wife he had married the second time to Charlotte Rebecca (My Grand Mother) who had been very much younger and a few years elder to his children from the “first Bed”. This marriage bore him 2 sons Ville & Walter & 3 daughters Catherine, Mable & Iris. This generation is also dealt in detail in the Family Tree.

My Grand Mother Thatha Amma being quite young, there had been healthy competition as regards to the respective off spring where his eldest daughter & his 2nd Wife were both producing at the same time. So much for the Old Gents virility, which I consider a divine blessing.

Coming back to the get together the idea was first mooted by my late father Ville in 1976, and was held in a grand scale at “Orchid Villa” the home of Nana De Mel, the eldest daughter of Hendrick De Mel.

Committees were appointed and in latter years decided to have the get together on Thai Pongal day in January each year the event being shifted each year to a different location mostly at a family member’s house.

The get togethers gave an opportunity for the large number of the “Hendrick De Mel” family to join in fun, fellowship & love.

His off spring, which has now reached the 6th generation, are many and spread around the world. Henricans are domiciled in Canada, US, England, Dubai, Qatar, Jordan Australia & New Zealand and the descendents are multiethnich, multicultural. The Henricans have now reached International status.

We thank God almighty that all of them and are doing very well in life and live as honorable citizens in their respective environs.

Lately however the numbers present at the annual get together has dwindled and my appeal through this web site is to request my dear relatives to make it a point to keep a day free in your busy schedule to meet & greet the off spring of Hendrick De Mel on this special day in January each year to propose a toast to the memory of the GRAND OLD MAN.

Thank You

Veraan De Mel
